

Bowen v. Colonnade Hotel, 4 MDLR 1007, 1011 (1982). The role of the Full Commission is to determine whether the decision under appeal was rendered in accordance with the law, or whether the decision was arbitrary or capricious, an abuse of discretion, or was otherwise not in accordance with the law. See 804 CMR 1.23.

We have carefully reviewed the petition for appeal and the full record in this matter and have weighed all the objections to the decision in accordance with the standard of review articulated herein. As a result of this review, we find no material errors of fact or law and conclude that there is substantial evidence in the record to support the findings of fact made by the Hearing Officer. We therefore deny the appeal and affirm the decision below in its entirety.

ORDER

For the reasons set forth above, we hereby affirm the Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and the Order of the Hearing Officer and order that the complaint be dismissed.

This Order represents the final action of the Commission for purposes of M.G.L. c. 30A. Any party aggrieved by this final determination may contest the Commission's decision by filing a complaint seeking judicial review, together with a copy of the transcript of proceedings before the Hearing Officer (See M.G.L. c. 151B §6) in the Superior Court within thirty (30) days of receipt of this decision.

SO ORDERED this 19th day of October, 2004.
